

Homework

What would Goldilocks have found if she had come to your house for breakfast?

Help your child to draw a picture, or take a photo, of what they like best for breakfast.

You can include what other family members like to eat too if you would like.

We hope to talk about the children's pictures/photos on Friday.