

Homework

Talk to your child about the Science Investigations we will be doing this week.

See if they can tell you about the changes in the things they brought in before half term. Ask them how their item has changed. Can it change back?

See if they can tell you about some of the things other children brought in.

There is no need to send anything in.

